DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 2. Claims1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yoshihiro (JP2002-084160).

Yoshihiro discloses a surface acoustic wave device in figs. 1-4 comprising: a substrate (21) for a surface-mounting; a pair of connecting electrodes(22,23) disposed on a principal surface of the substrate; a crystal blank(3) having excitation electrodes(31,33) and extension electrodes extending from the excitation electrodes to respective opposite sides of an end of the crystal, the opposite sides being fixed to the connecting electrodes by an electrodes by an electrically conductive adhesive(4); and a ridge(5) corresponding to the end of the crystal blank and disposed on the substrate in spaced relation to the connecting electrodes, the ridge having a height greater than a thickness of the connecting electrodes, the electrically conductive adhesive being applied to the connecting electrodes, a spacing between the connecting electrodes and the ridge, and an upper surface of the ridge; the crystal blank having an opposite end which remains lifted about the ridge, an upper surface of the ridge; the crystal blank having an opposite end which remains lifted about the ridge from the principal surface of the substrate under shrinking forces of the electrically conductive adhesive. Wherein, the ridge is made of an insulating material (ceramic), and the ridge comprises a pair of ridges associated respectively with the connecting electrodes. Crystal blank also have an opposite end which remains lifted about the ridge from the principal surface of the substrate under shrinking forces of the electrically conductive adhesive.

Yoshihiro further disclose the substrate (21) and the frame wall(27) jointly defining a recess(20), the crystal blank being accommodated in the recess.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Karen B Addison whose telephone number is 571-272-2017. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00 to 4:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Darren Schuberg can be reached on 571-272-2204. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
